International Student Health Issues

If your student health record is incomplete, you will receive a notice at orientation check-in on Sunday, August 19th to go to one or more Student Health Center appointments. This is mandatory so that you will comply with the University’s health requirements. Please go to these appointments even if you must miss other sessions and activities. Please bring your appointment sheet with you to the Health Center.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORIENTATION
SESSION DESCRIPTIONS
FALL 2018

Sunday, August 19
First Night Social
Come to a FREE night of games, music and an improv comedy show in the Tyler Haynes Commons Alice Haynes Room & Pier & Current Game Room with new students from the Roadmap to Success, Multicultural Affairs, and RC Appalachian Trail Challenge pre-semester programs.

Monday, August 20
Picnic Dinner
Join the Roadmap to Success and Multicultural Affairs orientation groups for a picnic dinner at the Weinstein Center for Recreation & Wellness for a fun evening of food, games, and sports at UR’s main recreational facility. This is a mandatory event that is free of charge.

Tuesday, August 21
Immigration Issues for F-1 and J-1 visa holders - How to Maintain Your Status in the U.S. & Health Insurance
F-1 and J-1 students will learn about maintaining their student status in the U.S. and regulations and procedures for studying, traveling, and working on and off campus, as well as the policy, benefits, and claims procedures for the international student health insurance plan.

U.S. Laws & Campus Safety
A University police officer will discuss U.S. laws and campus regulations and resources regarding alcohol and drug use, weapons possession, driver and pedestrian safety, theft protection, active shooter scenarios, and other potential threats to the campus.

Health & Wellness Services
This session will explain campus services for mental, physical and sexual health and sexual misconduct policies and resources.

Center for Student Involvement Presentation & Reception
With over 200 student organizations, there are many ways to get involved in campus life outside of the classroom, which is a unique characteristic of a small, liberal arts, residential institution. In this interactive session, you will explore ways to meet American students through joining clubs, sports and other activities while enjoying refreshments and dessert.
Tuesday, August 21

Field Night
Come on out to the intramural (IM) fields for a night of fun! Bring a blanket to watch a movie under the stars, enjoy free ice cream from our ice cream truck, or play soccer, sand volleyball, basketball, or a variety of other field night games!

Wednesday, August 22

How to Have a Successful Intercultural Experience in the U.S.
This session will explore intercultural values and differences in social relationships and academic expectations that international students may experience while studying in the U.S. as well as classes and activities to help non-native English speakers become more familiar with U.S. culture.

How to Navigate the Residence Life System
Learn from male and female Resident Assistants (RAs) about the residence life system and their regulations, support and programming for students.

International Student Advisory Board (ISAB) Presentation
ISAB is a bridge from the international student community to the Office of International Education and other University departments. Meet the new Board members and learn how they can represent you at UR.

Inside American football
Want to learn more about American football? Football coaches, players and athletics staff will explain basic rules of the game and social rituals of game day. You will get an insider’s view of football as well as important information about student seating and buying tickets. After the presentation, you will get a brief tour of the football stadium so please wear comfortable shoes.

Thursday, August 23

Honor Council Presentation & Test for Undergraduate Exchange & Visiting Students
Honor Council members will explain the University’s honor system, including expectations and sanctions for honor code violations. All exchange students except for LAW and MBA students are required to take this exam during international student orientation.

A Guide to Working in the U.S. for Exchange & Visiting Students
Career Services staff will discuss job search preparation and strategies for working in the U.S. as an international exchange student, both during and after your exchange program. Topics such as resume writing, interviewing skills, networking, and resources for job listings will be covered.

Boatwright Library Tour for Exchange & Visiting Students & Teaching Assistants
Exchange & visiting students and teaching assistants will have the opportunity to take a guided tour of the University's main library. The tour will include an explanation of the resources available, including the curriculum materials center.

Friday, August 24

UR Downtown tour for Exchange & Visiting Students & Teaching Assistants
UR Downtown is a University resource located in downtown Richmond that connects UR with the Greater Richmond community. Students will ride the UR Downtown shuttle with an international OA, tour the facility, and visit a nearby attraction. Students will have the option of going out downtown afterward and coming back to campus at their own expense.
